

FESTIVAL OF ORTHODOX ARTS

FRIDAY 25TH to
SATURDAY 26TH OCTOBER

St John's Church, Bathwick, Bath BA2 6PT

From 10am

18 Artists
100+ works
2 Concerts
2 Talks
1 Children's workshop
Meet the artists
Cafe 10am – 5pm

FREE
EVERYONE
WELCOME

In support of The Genesis Trust

FESTIVAL PROGRAMME

ALL
EVENTS
FREE

Friday 25th Oct

10.00am

Exhibition opens

Artwork, crafts, music and books for sale throughout the festival. 20% of all sales will be donated to The Genesis Trust.

17.00

Vespers

19.30

Light beyond the Veil – Emma Hetherington

A candle-lit concert of original pilgrim songs written and performed by Emma Hetherington with Rebecca Vučetić.

10.00 – 17.00

Cafe open for refreshments

Saturday 26th Oct

10.00am

Doors open

10.30

From Genesis to Jerusalem – Aidan Hart

A talk about a new icon on the alpha and omega of creation.

11.30

Coffee break

12.00 – 13.00

A New Icon of Creation with IOCS

A conversation with Dr. Andrew Nosal (Point Loma Nazarene University), and Aidan Hart on depicting an evolving cosmos as creation transfigured by Christ. Moderated by Dr Elizabeth Theokritoff (Institute for Orthodox Christian Studies, Cambridge).

12.00 – 13.00

Children's workshop in the Hall

15.00

A Musical Adventure – Mosaic Choir

Folk songs and liturgical music from around the world – preceded by a short talk by Hilary Long from The Genesis Trust

10.00 – 17.00

Cafe open for refreshments

17.00

Vespers

Sunday 27th Oct

11.00

Divine Liturgy – All welcome.

Followed by an 'everyone bring' lunch

Light beyond the veil

A concert of original pilgrim songs

Friday 25th October – 19.30

Emma Hetherington returns to the Festival with a new set of songs inspired by Scripture, sayings of the Saints as well as her own words.

'Folky' in style she will be accompanied by her sister Rebecca Vučetić.

Visit: www.emma-pilgrimsongs.net

Benjamin Finn – Stained Glass

Tamara Penwell – Iconography

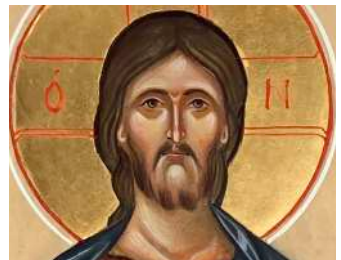

Ewan Craig – Sculpture

Masha Danishvar – Iconography

Karen Bates – Ceramics

Hanne Louise Svane – Iconography

Sam Lockwood – Painting

Aidan Hart – Iconography

Natasha Nikitin – Painting and prints

Aidan Hart – Iconography

Tamara Penwell – Iconography

Eri Fragiadaki – Painting

Raphael Bates – Wood carving

Sam Lockwood – Painting

Aurelia Duvanel Hepkema – Pastels

From Genesis to the New Jerusalem

A new icon on the alpha and omega of creation

Saturday 26th October – 10.30

Aidan Hart is a world-renowned iconographer, mosaicist and sculptor. Using a new icon commission (sketch design opposite), he will explore what the Scriptures and Tradition tell us about how Christ has come not just to unite mankind to God, but also to transfigure the whole cosmos.

This event is followed by a conversation at 12.00 with Dr. Andrew Nosal, moderated by Dr Elizabeth Theokritoff. This event is in partnership with the Institute for Orthodox Christian Studies, Cambridge.

Priceless Imagery – Mounted icons

Ian Bates – Photography

Masha Danishvar – Painting

Ewan Craig – Sculpture

Mary Wilde – Pastels

Karen Bates – Ceramics

David Parsons – Retrospective

Aidan Hart

Tamara Penwell

Barnabas Wilson
Retrospective

Karen Bates

Lwan Craig

Hanne Louise Svane

FESTIVAL OF ORTHODOX ARTS

FRIDAY 25TH to
SATURDAY 26TH
OCTOBER

St John's Rd, Bathwick,
Bath BA2 6PT

We are grateful for the support of Pipp & Co who are donating some of their legendary doughnuts for our Cafe. Don't miss out!

Our thanks to: Bath Abbey, The Widcombe Association, Bath Artists Studios for lending us display equipment and lighting

All donations, café proceeds and 20% from the sale of art will go to Genesis Trust, the local charity working with homeless and vulnerable people in the Bath area.